

ADRIANA ROUANET

Adriana has 10+ years experience as a cultural and film producer in Europe and in Latin America. She set up Colibri Cultural and Film Productions in the UK in 2011 and in Brazil in 2014 to develop projects of global collaboration. She is also an entrepreneur, and in 2017 founded Museonics, an online platform of immersive museum experiences for children in schools.

She is passionate about the arts and specialises in audience engagement, ensuring all cultural projects she delivers reach and engage broader and varied audiences. She has been collaborating with Tatu Filmes and Bedlam Productions for the past 5 years and is actively involved in Tarsila as Executive Producer, having secured Development Finance for the Film. She is a dynamic and experienced networker and fundraiser.