

SIMON EGAN

Simon has been producing and directing for over 20 years. In 2000 he co-founded Bedlam Productions. In 2006 Simon discovered and optioned and unmade play that he later co-produced and turned into the multi award winning $15m feature, The King's Speech. The film is still the most successful Independent British film of all time, grossing $420m worldwide. In 2012, the company produced the critically acclaimed Zaytoun, in 2014 Kajaki which was nominated for a BAFTA.

Alongside his feature film work Simon is known in the industry as an RTS award winning director and producer responsible for a series of ground-breaking documentaries including - Channel 4's Looking For Ricky, The Real Blair Witch, BBC's The Paedophile Hunters and the Emmy nominated Titanic Case Closed.

Bedlam is about to release its 6th feature Steel Country starring BAFTA winner Andrew Scott. Simon and his team are currently producing the Fearless written by Paul Tamasy and Eric Johnson (The Fighter) and is Executive Producer on The Naked Wanderer starring John Cleese and the SiFi thriller Breach.